How did you learn about The Leadership Initiative?

Briefly describe your interest in participating in The Leadership Initiative:

Leadership Development, pertaining to Effective Congregational Leadership is one focus of this training program. How far along are you in the Congregational Leadership part of your ministry?

What models currently guide you as a congregational leader?

How familiar are you with Family Systems Theory as applied to congregations?

A Group Coaching Experience, plus Individual Leadership Coaching are part of The Leadership Initiative. Each participant will work on development goals, personal and/or professional, that sharpen their ability to lead congregations toward mission advancement. What may your development goals be at this point?

A key focus of The LI is to implement the learning and growth to lead our congregations to more effectively and faithfully live out their callings. This involves change and transformation from where the congregation is to where God is calling. How might you want to use what you gain through The LI to lead transformation work in your congregation?

The Leadership Initiative meets one day per month – Second Thursdays, September 2009-May 2010. By signing this application below, you are indicating that you will commit to consistent attendance and participation if you are selected for this program. Learning and growth will be enhanced by the strong participation of persons involved. Some level of confidentiality is required for the clergy coaching group.
