

1. Miller Scholarship

for High School Seniors

The Racial/Ethnic Concerns Committee awards the Rev. John C. and Queen Miller Scholarship each year to a deserving student. Students must meet established criteria, complete application and essay to be considered for the scholarship. See criteria and form online.

2. Leadership Development Scholarship

for Paid Church Staff AND Volunteers

The Education and Equipping Ministry Team of Providence Presbytery has money to award scholarships for lay leaders, educators and pastors to attend leader development events. There is additional money budgeted specifically for church educators. The EEMT has created a scholarship application for this purpose. Online application. Those who volunteer for the church and/or those with little or no continuing education money in their church budgets are especially encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity. Scholarship money may be requested for individuals or teams from your church to attend an event.

Some suggested places to search for conference opportunities are:

PC(USA)	National Elders Conference National Multicultural Conference National Presbyterian Evangelism Conference Presbyterian Peacemaking Conference Presbyterian Stewardship Conference World Mission Conference
The Alban Institute	See "Learn and Lead" section
Association of Church Educators	See "Events"
Godly Play	See "Conferences"
Lombard Mennonite Peace Center	Home Page
Montreat Conference Center	See "Conferences"

Applications may be completed online at www.providencepres.org or mailed to Providence Presbytery, attn: Sarah Hegar, 515 Oakland Ave., Rock Hill, SC 29730.

The scholarship committee of EEMT will respond to requests within two (2) weeks of receiving an application for funds. Persons may apply once within a 12 month period. All scholarship recipients are requested to provide the EEMT with an evaluation of the conference within 30 days of returning from an event. They are also asked to share the information in some way with the presbytery. Some possible ways to meet this requirement would be to lead a workshop, write an article for a presbytery publication, speak at a presbytery meeting, or consult with another church.

If you have questions regarding this scholarship application process, you may contact Sarah Hegar at 800-922-1609 or sarah@providencepres.org or any member of the Education & Equipping Ministry Team of Providence Presbytery.
