Levor Ross is the son of Fred and Anita Curry. Levor is the first recipient of the Queen Miller Memorial Scholarship given in 2008. Levor is a graduate of Gaffney High School where he won a football scholarship to Feather River Jr. College, Quincy, California. Levor has completed his studies at Feather River and has accepted a football scholarship to the University of California at San Diego. Levor and his parents are members of Hopewell

Nicholas and Christopher Feemster are the sons of Richard and Geraldine Feemster and the grandsons of James and Frances Feemster. They are members of Pleasant Grove (Y) Church and were very active in youth ministry. Nick and Chris are 2009 graduates of York Comprehensive High School, where they played football. They are currently enrolled as freshmen at Coastal Carolina University, Conway, SC. They are recipients of the 2009-2010 Queen Miller Memorial Scholarship and wish to thank the members of the Racial Ethnic Concerns Committee and all members of Providence Presbytery for their love and support.
