Dear Partners in Ministry:

One way that we seek to equip and support you as you go about your ministry is by providing helpful resources. We hope you will find this Stewardship Packet a helpful and useful resource as you begin planning your fall stewardship season as well as year-round stewardship emphases. You will find a variety of materials. They include:

- "What to Keep, What to Cut: Reshaping Budgets in Times of Adversity" by John Wimberly, Jr. from 2010 CONGREGATIONS magazine published by The Alban Institute
- "Rethinking Stewardship: New Strategies for a Changing World" by Tom Norwood from the March 2010 Stewardship Kaleidoscope Conference
- "Annual Campaigns that Really Work!" by Rev. Bob Sheldon from March 2010 Stewardship Kaleidoscope Conference
- "Personal Commitment to Stewardship Questions for Reflection", "My Attitude Towards Stewardship Test", and "Ten Financial Stewardship Tips" by Jerry Cannon from the March 2010 Stewardship Kaleidoscope Conference
- "Snapshot of Church Finances" by Don Hotchkiss, The Alban Institute
- "Sample Year-End Letter to Contributors" from PCUSA Office of Stewardship Website
- "Introduction to Stewardship" study from The Presbyterian Leader. This is for preview only. Churches that wish to use the study may purchase it for $10 from ThePresbyterianLeader.com and make as many copies as you like for your church
- Providence Presbytery Resource Center Stewardship Resources Bibliography
- Flyer on the 2011 Stewardship Kaleidoscope Conference

And especially for churches under 100 members:

- "Discovering New Financial Resources for the Small Membership Church" by David L. McDonald from the March 2010 Kaleidoscope Conference

Be sure to pick up your church's packet at the August 15th Presbytery meeting. Please let us know if there are other ways we can assist in equipping and supporting you as you go about your ministry.

Grace and peace,

Mark
